thing is certain, the business community have suffered long enough from the supineness of the Government in this matter, and will soon, unless the necessity is provided for, take some active steps to jog that department into a little faster gait.

WHEAT .- The late refreshing rains have prepared the land on East Maui for sowing wheat, and we understand that a larger extent will be sown this winter than ever before. We would urge on the farmers to plant the Chile seed, which can be had now at the mill at the same figure that the Hawaiian costs, though it is fast being ground up. The Chile wheat has the great recommendations of being a large berry, white, thin-skinned, and entirely free from weevil eggs, which last fact alone ought to ensure its exclusive use in planting. The Hawaiian seed breeds weevils very quickly, when damp or heated, but as yet, a weevil has not appeared in the 7500 bushels of Chile grain. We think that wheat raised from the latter seed will be worth from twelve to twenty cents a bushel more than the ordinary Hawaiian. It will be some trouble for the farmers to get it exchanged, but they will be amply repaid, we doubt not.

CREDITS AT THE CUSTOMS .- We learn that the Privy Council has directed the Collector General of Customs to reduce the term for which credits are given at the Customs, from ninety days to forty-five days. Three months credit has always been given when asked for the past ten years, and we have heard no reason assigned for the change.

AMERICAN CLUB.—Another grand rally took place last Saturday evening at the Club rooms, on which occasion the ship masters in port presented to the Club a billiard table. The table was presented through Alexander Campbell, Esq, and was accepted on behalf of the Club by the Hon. D. L. Gregg. A number of spirited speeches were made by ship masters and others. The attendance was very large.

HULAHULAS, AGAIN .- The Government have taken active measures to suppress these exhibitions, and a trial last week before Judge Griswold on the question of their being nuisances, resulted against the parties Supreme Court for a trial by jury.

famous guano island, which turns out to be New on Saturday last to visit Bird Island located to the the commencement of a new line of Mormon policy. N. W. of this group, which is supposed to possess guano deposits. The H. will return in about ten days.

The Concert at the Court House on Monday evening was well attended, the house being filled to its utmost capacity. Although the concert was got up at very short notice, the pieces received marked commendation, and showed that there is some vocal talent among us.

ROYAL HAWAHAN THEATER .- Notwithstanding the various attractive entertainments which have been attended. On Tuesday evening, Mr. J. Carden took a benefit, on which occasion the house was crowded to repletion. An attractive bill is offered for this formed in the Sandwich Isles. evening consisting of "The Iron Chest," and "The Limerick Boy," singing, dancing, &c.

Rows's Proness Carcus. Has been favored by large audiences since our last issue, the most meagre of which, strange to say, was on the occasion of the "Sailors' Home Benefit." This evening, John co Paper. Smith, that eccentric "Old Nigger," takes a benefit, and the bill he offers shows good intent to please his friends. Mr. D. Long also takes a benefit during of their tennage in breadstuffs. This is in consethe coming week.

For the P. C. Advertiser.

Whenever individuals are seen to pursue a line of conduct, in business or otherwise calculated to enhance the commercial prosperity and internal stability of a nation it behooves the conductors of a public press to devote a few lines at least to the laudation of them and their acts, thereby holding up to the | ited safety in the highest branch of a tree. community at large an example worthy of imitation.

If then, Mr. Editor, you entertain similar opinions with me, you will doubtless be eager to do homage to the energy and enterprise of Messrs. Ahching and Chingah who for months have carried on a large business in cakes in the neighborhood of the market. It is with hesitation that I give their names in full, feeling sure that they would from a sense of extreme modesty, recoil from public praise; but when we see before our eyes their self-denying acts, and truly heroic exertions in behalf of kanaka appetities, we must admit that to remain longer silent would be unjust. The cakes which compose their stock in trade, are not indigenous, and no tongue can describe the debt of gratitude due them, not only from R. H. A. > HONOLULU, Dec., 1856. To the Editor of the Pacific Com. Advertiser.

DEAR SIR,-About leaving, and I presume for ever, your hospitable community, I desire through your valuable columns

"One word but to whisper-to breathe but one sigh." To the clergymen and many of the leading residents of your island, who have so kindly received the stranger-administered to his necessities, and listened to his statements permit me to express how deep are the obligations I feel, and how warm is the remembrance I shall ever cherish toward them.

For the gentlemanly attentions and many kindnesses conferred by the students of Oahu College, and its efficient and urbane president and professors, I desire to express my grateful and endearing recollection. I hope by-and-by to hear of many of their names as occupying high positions, discharging high duties and achieving a worthy and illustrious renown in the " battle of life."

To your community I wish to repeat, that my statements as to matters in Utah are correct—that there are elements combined in the midst of the Mormons which will develop as astonishing a political as they have exhibited a religious phaze. I should be obliged by the insertion of the subjoined extracts from a letter I received from Utah by the last mail. The writer's name is Nebro D. Empey, a young man well known by all the Mormon Elders among you, as well as at Salt Lake.

"Also, the 'old fellow' is trying to start something new again; news has come that they have passed an act in Congress, or rather had it twice up for discussion, that no man nor men shall have more than one wife living at the same time in any territory belonging to the U.S. The governor's (Brigham Young) reply to this was, 'that if all Mormons did engaged in the exhibitions, who have appealed to the not take more than one wife, he would cut them off from the church'-so now look out for tall timber !"

This is more important as the Mormons have GUANO ISLAND .- On our fifth page will be found hitherto always boasted of their love of their country's Com. Mervine's official account of his visit to the institutions, and obedience to their country's laws; although I know that secretly their hearts were festering with rebellion. To the Mormons here I desire to utter a parting word of friendly advice. I cannot be benefitted nor injured by their prosperity or loss. If they are determined to go to Utah at all hazzards, "Go! but do May's, where officers of vessels, and the public generally will find goods suitable for their requirements. not take your families with you or else provide yourselves with sufficient means to return, in case you would not wish to surround your wives with such associations; nor bring up your children in the midst of depravity and so few opportunities of education; and not be as many there are, who would willingly but cannot remove."

To yourself and Editor of Polynesian allow me to express my thanks for opening your columns to me. I shall ever look back upon my short sojourn given during the past week, the Theater has been well among your mountains and cocoa nuts with much pleasure, and feel that if my visit has done no good to any one but myself, that I can never forget many valuable lessons received, and warm friendshisps

I am dear sir, yours and theirs truly, JON HYDE JR.
